

Analyses of the Taxi Company

The goal of this project to better understand of which stations are most important to this company to plan how to distribution their taxi cars.

Till now I analysis the stations in summer season the model is describe one the busiest stations in new York